

Murder at Venue 332 Death by Champagne and Chocolate

October 2, 2015

Friday, October 2, more than 200 people attended Wichita Scottish Rite's annual benefit for children with Autism and Speech-Language-Hearing disorders. The proceeds from the event support the Evelyn Hendren Cassat Speech, Language and Hearing Clinic at Wichita State University, a RiteCare® Clinic.

WICHITA STATE UNIVERSITY

Signature Theatre presented 'Murder at Venue 332 - Death by Champagne and Chocolate'. Deb Campbell and her staff created a special production

Dinner was catered by Sweet Allie B's.

After dinner, Charles Moon conducted a live auction. An airplane ride, a ride on a Wichita Fire Department truck, dinner with WSU President Bardo, and lunch with Coach Marshall, were among the items auctioned.

Our special guest family was introduced. Landon receives WSU clinic services and was accompanied by his parents Dana and Chris. Dana shared their experiences and how Landon has benefitted. The capacity crowd enjoyed a memorable evening raising funds for the WSU RiteCare® clinic. Be sure to save Friday, October 7, 2016, on your calendar for next year's benefit and get your tickets early.
